FAIRFIELD DENTIST INSTALLED AS PRESIDENT OF THE CONNECTICUT STATE DENTAL ASSOCIATION

Serving as an advocate and education source for dental care throughout the State

SOUTHINGTON, CT – Dr. Jon Davis, a general dentist in Fairfield, was installed as President of the Connecticut State Dental Association (CSDA) on Wednesday, May 5 during the CSDA House of Delegates annual session at the Mohegan Sun Resort & Casino. Dr. Davis has an office in Fairfield and will serve a one-year term as the CSDA President.

“I’m thrilled to serve as the CSDA President,” said Dr. Davis. “I’m looking forward to expanding my responsibilities and educating the public and legislators on dental issues unique to Connecticut.”

Dr. Davis was born and raised in Fairfield, where he attended Fairfield Public Schools. Dr. Davis graduated from Springfield College with a B.S. in 1972. He is also a 1976 graduate from Tufts University School of Dental Medicine. Dr. Davis is a member of the Pierre Fauchard Academy and International College of Dentists. He is also involved in several volunteer programs, including the annual CSDA Give Kids a Smile event, CT Mission of Mercy and Donated Dental Services. Dr. Davis opened his private practice in Fairfield in 1976, where he still practices today.

Also, elected to the CSDA Board of Governors were Dr. Tatiana Barton of Stamford as the President-Elect; Dr. Carolyn Malon of Farmington as the Vice President; and Dr. Brian Duchan of Westport as Secretary/Treasurer.
